ID Number..... Passport Number Nationality.....

Hereby state under oath;

1. I am an adult MALE / FEMALE (delete whichever is not applicable)
2. I have been resident at the following address for a period of years.....
3. I have been advised that everyone involved in the Rotary International Youth Exchange Programme will be required to depose to an Affidavit confirming that they have not been involved in child abuse or convicted of an offence relating to child abuse.
4. I am advised that consent must be given to obtain a police clearance in respect of myself should this be required. I accordingly provide such consent.
5. I believe that my statement as a member of the Family of Rotary should have been sufficient, but if the organisation requires me to make an affidavit, then I accept that I shall do so. The affidavit will be in a form as prescribed by Rotary International and the information therein provided shall be deemed incorporated herein and is true and correct.
6. I accordingly, in response to the screening requirements, confirm that I have not been involved, charged, or convicted of any offence relating to child abuse (whether of a physical, sexual or emotional nature), sexual misconduct (including sexual harassment, whether pertaining to children, young people or otherwise).
7. I understand and appreciate the need to ensure the conduct of a relationship with youth participation in the above program and accept that Rotary International shall conduct any investigations deemed necessary in as discreet and reasonable manner as possible, and/or further accept that such enquiries and investigations shall not constitute an invasion of my privacy (the information ascertained in the course of any such enquiries and investigations to be maintained by rotary International as private and confidential)
8. I further confirm and certify that I understand that D9400 Youth Exchange program's intention is to deny a position to anyone charged, involved or convicted of a crime involving violence or sexual misconduct against another person and/or where any order of a civil court of a prohibitory nature has been obtained. In respect of violence or other misconduct.
